Snap a photo and share it with TRVEA for a chance to be named "photo of the year", win fun prizes, and be featured on our website, Facebook, or Instagram pages!
No horse required to participate!

How to Participate

No registration required to participate!
Simply email your photo submissions to photo.trvea@gmail.com
Please include your name, the names of everyone in the photo (horses too), the location it was taken, and the category/categories you are submitting for.
Photos may fall under multiple categories.

Email submission examples:

"Samantha Tunks and Rocky spot a coyote at [location] for 'wildlife' and 'between the ears' categories"

"Who: Samantha Tunks and Rocky
At: The Little Barn
Category: Community Advocacy"

Please make all submissions by November 1st to be considered for prizes!
At our member's meeting on December 5th, TRVEA's Board of Directors will announce winning submissions as "photo of the year" for each of FOUR categories (prizes TBA).
Updates and featured photos will be posted throughout the year, so share as you go!

Photographs and videos used in our publications, website, and social media help share the impact of our programs and services. Images are obtained and used in accordance with our consent procedures, applicable privacy laws, and organizational policies. We are committed to protecting the dignity, privacy, and confidentiality of the individuals and communities we serve.
If you appear in an image published by our organization and have questions or concerns about its use, please contact us. We will review your request promptly and take appropriate action where required.
